

Got a project idea? Looking for ways to make it happen?

Are you a creative person who needs resourcing skills to turn a dream project into reality?

Do you identify as having a disability?

Do you want business skills that compliment your creative passions?

The Disability and Arts Transition Team (DATT) and the Community Arts Network of SA Inc. (CAN SA) invite disabled artists and arts-workers to join in training that contributes to a Course in Business Skills for Creative People (Code 40594SA).

WHEN: 16 & 17 February, 10am to 4pm

WHERE: Hetzel Lecture Theatre, State Library of SA

COST: $25 (normally up to $150)

Only 15 places are available SO BE QUICK AND REGISTER!

The training aims to

- Improve your skills and capabilities in finding and applying for funds
- Increase your skills in project resourcing
- Offer opportunities to network and share ideas
- Build your self esteem, confidence and knowledge.

No prior qualifications are needed for you to undertake this workshop.

The training will offer participants the opportunity to earn qualifications in the module Develop Funds and Resources (CVFAS03B) within a nationally recognized course for people who volunteer and work in the arts, cultural and community sector in Australia.

The workshops are hands-on, practical and designed to be relevant to participants.

If you are a disabled artist, arts worker, volunteer, someone who works within communities or someone who would like to, this course is for you.

If you are interested in taking part in this training opportunity should contact Martin at DATT by email msawtell@cansa.net.au, mobile 0405 225 201 or phone (08) 8231 0900 to receive an enrolment form.
